Subject No.	2026R-27
Job Title	Fixed Term Researcher
Department	Radio Research Institute / Radio Propagation Research Center, Remote Sensing Laboratory
Work Contents (Research theme)	Research and development on atmospheric measurement, data analysis, and signal processing technology using ground-based radars
Detail of Work Contents	This position is engaged in research and development of atmospheric measurement, data analysis, and signal processing technology using ground-based radars, such as weather radar (MP-PAWR) and passive sensing using broadcast waves and communication waves. Research and development such as composite analysis of multiple related observation data, simulations, and development of observation methods are expected. The Article 15(2) of the Act on the activation of Science, Technology and Innovation will be applied to this work content.
	Employees to be hired through this recruitment may apply for external competitive research fundings such as Grant-in-Aid for Scientific Research (KAKENHI) and NICT' s internal research fundings.
Application requirement	1. Ph.D holder or the equivalent (soon-to-be a doctor) can also apply. 2. The position requires basic knowledge and R&D experience on radar remote sensing. In particular, the R&D experience on precipitation and/or atmospheric observation using ground-based radars is desired. 3. Applicant must be able to proceed with research while maintaining smooth communication and collaboration with researchers inside/outside our laboratory.
